My Favourite Things

(from The Sound of Music, by Hammerstein and Rodgers. Sung by Maria to the children when they couldn't get to sleep due a stormy evening and expresses what Maria loves and escapes to when she needs to feel happy.)

Raindrops on roses and whiskers on kittens Bright copper kettles and warm woollen mittens Brown paper packages tied up with strings
These are a few of my favourite things

Cream-coloured ponies and crisp apple strudels Doorbells and sleigh bells and schnitzel with noodles
Wild geese that fly with the moon on their wings
These are a few of my favourite things

Girls in white dresses with blue satin sashes Snowflakes that stay on my nose and eyelashes Silver-white winters that melt into springs
These are a few of my favourite things

When the dog bites
When the bee stings
When I'm feeling sad
I simply remember my favourite things
And then I don't feel so bad

Pure Imagination

(from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Briscusse and Newley. Sung by Willy Wonka as the characters arrive at the chocolate factory. The song has a dreamy and magical quality about it.)

Close your eyes, make a wish and count to three.

Come with me and you'll be in a world of pure imagination.
Take a look and you'll see into your imagination.

We'll begin with a spin trav'ling in the world of my creation!
What we'll see will defy explanation.

If you want to view paradise, simply look around and view it.
Anything you want to, do it.
Want to change the world?
There's nothing to it.

There is no life I know to compare with pure imagination.
Living here, you'll be free, if you truly wish to be.
